Form time and Pastoral Education

- PDC on Tuesdays; students learn about a range of areas including finance, health, drugs, online safety and healthy relationships.
- 2 assemblies a week; on a range of issues, e.g. consent, diversity, wellbeing, kindness, climate change and global issues.
- Form time twice a day every day with form tutors covering range of topics of discussion.

Sixth Form Routines

- Students are expected to attend every day from 9am – 3:40pm (3:15pm if students have a study period).
- Sixth Form students receive allocated independent study time in the school day. It is essential that students use this time.
- Students are expected to uphold the highest standards of engagement and commitment.

Sixth Form Uniform

- “A part of the school but apart from the school”
- “Appropriate for a professional working environment”
- Uniform-help us to help your child.
