19th November 2025

Good morning

As part of our ongoing work on Healthy relationships we have an assembly tomorrow delivered by the Alice Ruggles foundation about the dangers of coercive relationships and stalking. It contains information about Alice and how she lost her life but also how young people can protect themselves and advice on what to do if they ever find themselves in that situation.

It is hard hitting but is also hugely relevant and informative and has already been seen by our year 13s.

If you would prefer for your child, not be in this assembly or have any concerns about this then please let us know by emailing sfadmin@ecclesbourne.derbyshire.sch.uk and they can remain in Sixth Form at that time.

Kind regards

Hannah Weller
Head of Sixth Form
